Illogan Parish Fair – 14th July 2012

The Parish Fair are going very well. The revived Horticultural and Domestic Show this year has 40 categories including fruit, vegetables, flowers, baking and photography. If you would like to enter or would like to help the organisers please contact Mrs J Opie of the Allotment Association on 842622, Mrs M Wilkes on 843082 or pick up a brochure from a local shop or look at the information on the Parish Show page at www.illoganparishcouncil.gov.uk

The show opens at 2pm and throughout the afternoon will feature live music performances, exhibitions and the usual range of stalls including fun ones like a ducking stool and a coconut shy. Gwel an Mor are bringing their wildlife show featuring birds of prey and reptiles and will be giving talks about all their animals.

There will be a range of static exhibits in the grounds of Illogan Village Hall including a steam roller, amphibious vehicle and fire engine. The 1st Illogan Scout Group will be creating a fully functioning scout camp. In the Village Hall you can look at the crafts and modelling exhibition and across the road at The Wellbeing Centre you can have a look at the art exhibition featuring the work of local artists as well as trying out some complementary and alternative therapies. Nearby, Illogan Parish Church will have a local history exhibition, walks and talks and Illogan School will host the Horticultural & Domestic Show exhibits.

In the evening, starting at 7.30pm, we are delighted to announce that the local internationally renowned Cornish Ceildh band Hevva will be performing for us and hosting a traditional Cornish dance night at the Wellbeing Centre (£4 adults, 8 – 18yrs £3) The Parish Church have a fascinating presentation by the local historian Jof Bullen entitled "Titanic – The Cornish Connection" (Free entry – donations invited) and Bronia Saunders is creating a special Parish Fair variety show entitled "The Illogan Players - All at Sea" featuring performances from local thespians and entertainers (£4 Adults, £3 Children). Please phone the Parish Fair - Box Office (843845) to reserve tickets or call in to reception at Illogan School between 2pm and 4pm on weekdays.

The Illogan Parish Fair is a community event where everyone is welcome. We do hope that the range of attractions we are planning will appeal to everyone and we welcome any new offers of help, offers of items to exhibit or expressions of interest from local organisations who might like to have a stall at the fair.

It's your Parish, It's your Fair, so why not get involved? It's not too late.

The next issue of the Review will be available on 1st Sept 2012.

Potential entries for inclusion must be with the Editor by the 15th August

At the fair all of the afternoon events will be free and any money raised from the days various events will go to local good causes and charities.

'In politics, absurdity is not a handicap'. Napoleon Bonaparte

Cornwall Councillor Terry Wilkins MBE

The great debacle over the new waste contract seems to be going on but luckily (Don't speak too soon) Illogan seems to have got off quite lightly with only three complaints that I know of.

It is a big contract for one Company like Cory to take on and I personally didn't believe it would be perfect from the word go.

The biggest faux pas they made was taking off the local teams and swapping them around so that no one knew the small back lanes and cul de sacs that the regular teams knew off by heart. Hopefully, for the rest of Cornwall, it will all be sorted out by the end of May.

I hope that some of you will make it to the Illogan fun day at the RBL football ground in June. There will be some old fashioned fun and games for everyone to attempt and, a tea treat bun for all the children. Bring along a picnic and enjoy the afternoon. My thanks to Dave Dolling and his band of volunteers who have helped to make this possible. Without them, I couldn't have got it off the ground.

Lastly, as part of Cornwall Councils devolution to Parish Councils, we are being offered the toilets in Illogan Park after refurbishment by the Council. We, at the moment, do not have a toilet facility for children who use the park and therefore, would ask you to take the time to let me know your feelings on whether it would be a good idea or not to accept Cornwall Councils offer. There is funding for two years for the cleaning and up keep of the property. I can be contacted by phone, email or mobile, all of which are on the back of the review.

I Hope to see you at the 'Party in the Park' fun day.

Parish Council Chairman David Ekinsmyth

The Council has now moved into its final year before the next election in May 2013. This term of office has been extended from four to six years because of the adoption of Unitary Status by Cornwall Council and the consequent demise of Kerrier District Council.

Much has happened over the past year and we still have a lot to do in the next, to proceed with the gradual implementation of objectives set in the Parish Plan. These will continue and be regularly reviewed and updated.

Mrs Suzanne Ballinger, our Parish Clerk, has served the Parish Council for the last 12 years and she has now decided to retire on the 30th June after an extended period of ill health.

The Council will be seeking to appoint a new permanent part-time Clerk from 1st July. Anyone with an interest can apply for an information pack from the Parish Office or ring me if they wish to discuss any aspects of the post.

Mrs Ballinger has given long and dedicated service to the Parish Council and our community and I wish to pay tribute to that and thank her for all her hard work. The Parish Council has developed a great deal in her time in post and much of the success of this is down to her efforts. Thanks Sue and all best wishes for all your future plans.

We now look forward to the summer and a series of community events such as the Queen's Jubilee 'party in the park' on Sunday 3rd June, and the rebirth of the Illogan Village Fair on 3rd June. The Parish gardening competition is being held this year and the Council hope that this will become a permanent feature in the future. The Green Ripple is operating in Tolvaddon at the moment and events have been taking place and more are planned in the near future. Keep an eye out for the newsletter or the notice board outside the shop in Tolvaddon.

All events depend on the hard work and active participation of everyone to ensure their success. My thanks for all you are doing.

At the Annual Parish Meeting I was privileged to be re-elected as Chairman for the forthcoming year with Terry Wilkins as Vice-Chair. The whole council is looking forward to the continuing development of its services to the community over the next year.

Political quote from a well known politician: "I believe we are on an irreversible trend toward more freedom and democracy – but that could change." ??

The J-Class serves as a rating for large sailing yachts designed between 1930 and 1937. These boats were used to compete with the best sailing talents in three races of the America's Cup. See them in Falmouth in late June.

The picture shows the J-Class yacht 'Veshelda' racing under full sail in the Caribbean whilst taking part in the Antigua Classic Yacht Regatta.

Nowhereisland (above) is six tonnes of soil dug up from an Arctic island and is being towed around the South West coast on a barge at a cost of £500,000. It is intended that it should represent the SW region in the Cultural Olympiad and to additionally open up a debate on global warming. See their website.

Village Hall Hire

The hall is available for parties, receptions, meetings and conferencing at very competitive rates. Facilities include the main hall, a fully equipped kitchen and a meeting/training room. Tables and chairs etc are available. To book or for more information contact Sue Skewes on 01209 843575

Note: We are very lucky to have our own Cubs and Scouts group here in Illogan. The leaders have said that are some spaces for Cubs because some of the existing Cubs are moving up to Scouts soon. Scouting (open to boys and girls) is always fun but provides opportunities to master new skills as well as to develop communication and social skills. If you would like more information or would like to reserve a place for your child please phone 01209 843845. Additional Info Cubs are aged 8 to 10 ½. If your child is not yet 8 then phone anyway and your child can go on the waiting list. It costs £21 per school term. Cubs meet on Thursdays 6.30 to 8pm in term time.

VILLAGE HALL NEWS: I am pleased to report that Spring has been another active time for our regular groups. Now that the better weather has arrived (don't blame me if it's raining when you read this) why not pop along to the activity that you have been thinking about having a go at and actually try it out. All of our groups are run by enthusiastic leaders and you will, I'm sure, be made most welcome by everyone.

Since our last edition I am delighted to say that two new groups meet at the hall, the Friends of Manningham Wood and U3A Ladies Canasta Club. We are very pleased to have them and hope they have fully settled in and are enjoying using the facilities. I am also pleased to report that 1st Illogan Scouts have started a Beaver Colony. At the time of writing there are still a few places left, so if you want to bag a place for your 5½ - 8yr old child please contact Steve (Sec. 1st Illogan) on 843845. There are also a few spaces available for Cubs (8 - 10 ½ yrs). The first 3 weeks are free. So why not give it a go?

Looking ahead the "youthy" group will be completing work on the community garden project over the summer and of course we are very much looking forward to the Illogan Parish Show in July when the Village Hall and many of our regular users will be playing a full and active part.

Bish Bash Bosh – The Tin Violin I am delighted to announce that Dean Nolan will be bringing his version of Alan M Kent's play The Tin Violin to Illogan Village Hall on Friday 15th June. Phone Box Office (843845) to reserve tickets for this incredibly moving true story.

Always looking for help! If your new years resolution was to do something for the community then why not offer to help run the Village Hall or one of the many voluntary groups who are based here and who are only successful because of the kind support and generosity of people just like you. If you have a little time and would like to help to run an activity or think you could support one of them in some other way then please pop along to their session or give their main contact a call.

Hire of the Village Hall: The hall is available for parties, receptions, meetings and conferencing at very competitive rates e.g. £30 for a private party. Facilities available include the main hall, a fully equipped kitchen and a small meeting / training room. Tables and chairs are also available as is a public address system. To book or for more information contact Sue Skewes on 01209 843575.

A senior politician was visiting the offices of a mortuary and, wishing to seem knowledgeable, was talking to the lead pathologist. The conversation went like this:

Q: Doctor, before you performed your last autopsy, did you check for a pulse? A: No.

Q: So did you check for blood pressure? A: No.

Q: What about a check for breathing? A: No.

Q: So then, it is possible that the patient could have been alive when you began the autopsy? A: No.

Q: But how can you be so sure, Doctor? A: Because his brain was sitting on my desk in a jar.

Q: Yes, but could the patient have still been alive, nevertheless?

A: Yes, possible I suppose, but if alive, could only function as a politician !

The Diamond Jubilee Party in the Park - 3rd June

To be held in the Illogan Junior FC Soccer Ground off Merritts Hill, Illogan between 2.00 and 5.00pm

At the 'Party in the Park' being held for the Children there will be a gift for all children, resident in the Parish, under the age of 12 years. To commemorate the Queens Diamond Jubilee this gift will take the form of a specially issued postage stamp on a white envelope, franked by the Illogan local Post Office. It will also include the Illogan Parish logo and carry the appropriate wording to indicate that it is to celebrate the Jubilee. So that this can be retained as a keepsake, the envelope will be protected in its own transparent cover. The Parish Council would like to extend this limited edition gift to all children under 12 years, resident in the Parish, who are not able to attend the 'Party in the Park'. To facilitate this, the Parish Council office in Tolvaddon will be open between the hours of 11.00am to 3.00pm on Saturday 8th June and Sunday 9th June where the children and/or their parents can collect their gift. This is a limited edition of 600

The local store at Park Bottom

Going back to last Christmas and the switching on of the tree lights at Park Bottom, there are lots of helpers in the background who help to make the evening a success with both donations and their time, none more so than Wilf and Sue from the local shop in Park Bottom.

Unfortunately, after the event, in the official round of thanks to all involved, Wilf and Sue were somehow omitted. The Parish Council recognise, and are most grateful, for Wilf & Sue's input and help for this event and apologise for the oversight and hope that this belated message of thanks will make up for the oversight.

A contact for a local club or evening class.

An obscure piece of historical information which you can't find online

A section from an Act of Parliament, or access to legal cases.

A residential or business phone number for anywhere in the country

Help with finding out how to get grant funding for an individual or group.

We have a team of information professionals dedicated to finding an answer to your enquiry. Where we don't have the information ourselves, we will always try to direct you to someone who does.

With Summer upon us, (so we are told) and the barbeques come out of the garage, the rust gets wire brushed off and you nip out to buy new tools because the old ones are beyond hope, remember this bit of Ever noticed how, wherever you stand, the smoke goes right into your face?

*Food for thought: Former US President Theodore Roosevelt said

1755 Tsunami

On 1 November 1755 at 09:40 the Lisbon earthquake caused a tsunami to strike the Cornish coast at around 14:00. The epicentre was approximately 250 miles (400 km) off Cape St Vincent on the Portuguese coast, over 1,000 miles (1,600 km) south west of the Lizard. At St Michael's Mount, the sea rose suddenly and then retired, ten minutes later it rose 6 ft (1.8 m) very rapidly, then ebbed equally rapidly, and continued to rise and fall for five hours. The sea rose 8 ft (2.4 m) in Penzance and 10 ft (3.0 m) at Newlyn. The same effect was reported at St Ives and Hayle. The 18th century French writer, Arnold Boscowitz, claimed that "great loss of life and property occurred upon the coasts of Cornwall"

Some of the scams to be aware of:

Cowboy Builders May knock on your door and pressurise you into agreeing for them to carry out work or repairs on your property e.g. Home Improvements, new drives or replacing loose roof tiles etc. Usually the work is shoddy and you will end up out of pocket because the chances are you won't be able to track them down in order to correct any problems. They normally use Mobile numbers.

Unscrupulous Doorstep Traders Use hard pressure sales tactics and often prey on the elderly. Typical offers include overpriced home security systems or free damp proof surveys that can end up costing an arm and a leg.

Counterfeit Goods Producers/Sellers The price of counterfeit goods can appear to be attractive. What is not so attractive is that the quality of the goods is likely to be inferior to the genuine item or worse, unsafe. Counterfeit goods are usually found on sale at Sunday Markets or Car Boot Sales. They range from shoddy copies of branded goods e.g. Video Tapes, CDs, Perfumes/Aftershaves, Sportswear, Toys or Car Parts.

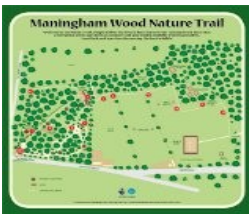

Bogus Homeworking Schemes Operators prey on vulnerable people like the unemployed, single parents or people that cannot go out to work. Typical scams include those who ask you to send money to register, or ones that never pay out because they claim your work is not up to standard. Bona Fide companies will send you information without you having to send money up front.

Maningham Wood Nature Trail

Quiz leaflets for the wildlife information boards can be found in Illogan shops and village halls at both ends of the new Nature Trail through the village.

Children can use these leaflets to find their way around the woodland and the churchyard as they search for the answers to questions about the wildlife that can be found around them.

The Nature Trail was first suggested in responses to the Parish Plan a couple of years ago, and it has taken that long for the Friends of Maningham Wood to source the funding for such an adventurous project. The money was eventually obtained from the National Lottery Fund, Redruth Charities Trust and Cornwall in Bloom, and the information boards and quiz leaflets were produced by a Devon company, Nature Signs.

The boards were installed by the FoMW over a couple of weekends in March and the quiz leaflets were tested for the first time on Easter Sunday, when local children and visitors from Cornwall Wildlife Trust's Fox Club searched for the required information in the spring sunshine amongst the bluebells.

If you would like to get involved in future community events, or in helping to manage the woodland, please come along to the very informal FoMW meetings that are held on the first Monday of every month at 7.30pm in the meetings room of the Village Hall.

Ever wondered how Indian Queens (Cornish: Krows Karworgi) got its name? The village is situated west of Goss Moor. Here's the most popular 3 possibilities. Each version agrees that the name comes from the name of a coach/post house or inn. The name cannot be traced earlier than the 19th century. The inn was built on a plot of land known as White Splat in the late 18th century. The Indian Queen Inn stood beside the road leading from Goss Moor to Fraddon, just below the top of the hill. The pub had a small porch and displayed as a sign the portrait of an Indian queen. An inscription on the porch told the story of a Portuguese princess who landed at Falmouth in packet days, and slept one night at this inn on her way to London. Her swarthy appearance gave onlookers the impression that she was an Indian.

It has also been suggested that the royal lady was Pocahontas (1595–1617), an American Indian who was the younger daughter of Powhatan, chief of the Indian tribes who lived along the Virginia coast. There is very little evidence to support this story; nevertheless, it is still commonly given as the origin of the name. Pocahontas's name has been given to a modern street in Indian Queens known as Pocahontas Crescent. Up to April 1780, the inn had the name "The Queen's Head". Sometime thereafter, and definitely by 1787, it had become "The Indian Queen". It seems that the name became "The Indian Queens" around the end of the 18th century. The signboard displayed an American Indian on one side and Victoria as Queen of India on the other. (Queen Victoria reigned 1837–1901; from 1877 she was Empress of India.) The pub was demolished in the 1960s and its old signboard resides in the Truro Museum. In 2009 the old stone lintel from the pub re-appeared on a house in Indian Queens not far from the site of the original pub.

With the recent cliff collapse at Hells mouth which was captured and shown on 'uTube' please warn your summer visitors of the dangers of getting too close to the cliff edges around our coastline. Garden designer Elizabeth Murray said:

Gardening is the art that uses flowers and plants as paint, and the soil and sky as canvas.

How do you know that you are a Master Gardener? There is a decorative compost container in your kitchen. You would rather go to a garden center to shop than a clothing store. You prefer gardening to watching television and you plan holiday trips around arboretums and public parks.

We are here to help. Please contact your Parish Councillor if you have issues you would like to discuss
