

ILLOGAN PARISH REVIEW

Free!

Welcome to Issue 46, Spring 2020 Edition of the Illogan Parish Review. Information is included about what is going on in the Parish from 1st March to the end of May 2020

Do you know which part of Illogan Parish this is?
please see pages 4&5 for further information

With compliments of Illogan Parish Council

CHAIRMAN OF THE PARISH COUNCIL:COUNCILLOR DAVE CRABTREE

I would like to start the year with an apology. You may recall that in the last Review I stated that the defibrillators funded by the Parish Council would be installed by the time that edition was delivered, unfortunately they were not. I am pleased to report that they have now been installed at Tehidy Country Park Cafe and Illogan Village Hall.

May I thank all parties involved and members of the public for making the three Christmas Light 'Switch On' Events such a success; the weather was on our side for all three evenings. Work has already begun on planning the events for this year and more details will follow in due course.

The Parish Council agreed at the January meeting to submit a planning application for the next phase of the improvements at Illogan Park, with the overall aim of making it a Park suitable for all ages and providing access for all members of the community.

We are receiving a number of complaints about dog fouling in the Park. I would ask owners to please clear up after their dogs as the consequences of children or adults treading or falling in it are not pleasant.

CORNWALL COUNCILLOR:COUNCILLOR DAVID EKINSMYTH

Hello again and I hope the New Year and decade is going well for you all so far.

There are lots of issues facing us as a community at the moment, but I am going to concentrate on one for this report and that is how we are proposing to deal with the matter of Climate change. More accurately what strategies we should adopt to reduce our carbon footprint and help to meet the Cornwall Council target by 2030 (the Cornwall Council Action Plan and targets can be viewed on the CC website/environment section).

Since the last review the Parish Council has supported my proposal and resolved to declare a Climate emergency. This is a hugely powerful statement indicating everyone's commitment in the Parish to support other communities and adding to the demands that Westminster takes a meaningful lead on addressing climate change.

The first step will be to form an Action Group drawing on enthusiastic local people who will be facilitated and resourced by the Council and Councillors. Its purpose is to plan, initiate and organise action, continually monitoring the results as we go. There will be a public meeting to allow people to express their views on how Illogan can play its part in carbon reduction over time and consider volunteering for action.

My view is clear recognising that the question of climate change has been around for a very long time and observing that despite substantial evidence there has been little official urgency shown in taking real action. Despite opposition from many people I do wonder if we can afford to take the risk with the future of our planet. Most of our younger generation say no we cannot. A key aim must be to ensure that action is fairly shared within the community or it will not work. It will not be easy but is delay an option?

So please consider volunteering and feel free to contact me or the Parish Office if you would like to discuss further. Thanks to those who have already indicated interest.

Illogan led with its Parish Plan, its Green Ripple Project and was one of the first with an approved Neighbourhood Plan. Let us continue in the lead with our Climate Change Action.

CORNWALL COUNCILLOR: COUNCILLOR PHILIP DESMONDE

Over the last year, as one of your Cornwall Councillor's I have been campaigning to improve the quality of life in the Tehidy area of the Parish that I represent and to support job creation and opportunities.

South Crofty Mine: I worked with Cornwall Council to invest £1m in the historic South Crofty Mine to secure tens of millions of pounds of investment in the Mine over the coming years with high skilled jobs and apprenticeship schemes.

Cornwall Housing: The "Coppers" housing scheme is now being sold and occupied. Sadly about 1 year late and significantly over budget, it is nevertheless, a pleasing development of housing much needed in our area.

Life Jackets for Cornish Fishermen from Pool: I encouraged Cornwall Council to stop the madness of buying lifejackets for our Cornish fishermen hundreds of miles away from Liverpool. They are now provided by LGS at Agar Road, Pool, just behind Lidl. Their life saving high-quality Mullion Lifejackets are available to Cornish Fishermen "on their doorstep". A great result for securing local high skilled jobs, cutting the carbon footprint and promoting the "Made in Cornwall" brand.

Local Issues: Campaigning to prevent over-development in the Countryside, promoting and supporting the Tehidy Country Park and waste disposal continue to be key "hot" issues. I have had some success at lobbying these matters, but more needs to be done.

VANDALISM – YOUR HELP IS NEEDED!

As Chairman of the Council I continue to be concerned about vandalism in our community, particularly in Illogan Park. If you see anything suspicious and an event is, or has just taken place, please ring the Police on 999. If you have information about an event which has already occurred, please contact the Parish Office on 01209 711433 or the Police via 101.

Cllr Dave Crabtree

DOG FOULING

It has come to our notice that dog fouling continues to be a problem in certain areas. The Parish Council would like to urge dog owners to clean up after their dogs. Whilst the majority are responsible dog owners and already do this, there are a few who do not. There is a particular problem at Illogan Park and it is unreasonable to expect the Football and Rugby Teams to spend up to an hour clearing dog mess before they can play on the pitch.

A big 'thankyou' to all responsible dog owners who continue to clean up after their dog; for those of you who do not, we feel it is not unreasonable to expect you to take responsibility and clear up after your dog.

MONUMENTAL IMPROVEMENT PROJECT

From the front page: Site of Crane Castle, Illogan

Crane Castle is located on the edge of a prominent coastal cliff known as Carvannel Downs, overlooking Basset's Cove, some 2500m south west of the Portreath near Illogan (Grid Ref: SW 6347 4396). Much of the area of the monument itself is short coastal grassland, the marginal areas however are covered in bracken, gorse, brambles etc.

Cornwall's protected landscape is well known and much loved for its iconic tin mines and prehistoric stone circles and these features often form some of our visitors' fondest memories of Cornwall and the reason why so many return time after time. These features are also much treasured by the many local voluntary conservation groups who tirelessly give up their own time on a regular basis to safeguard heritage sites, working with local landowners, across the county from Rame Head to West Penwith.

But did you know that the Cornwall Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) contains most of the County's scheduled monuments?

There are currently over a 100 Scheduled Monuments (SMs) outside of West Penwith in the Cornwall AONB on the Heritage at Risk Register. The Register is maintained by Historic England and is free to search on their website. Cornish monuments at risk range from prehistoric settlements, barrows and stone circles to defensive and industrial heritage features.

Collectively these sites are principally on Bodmin Moor, the Lizard and at Rame Head, with the main threats being vegetation and tree growth and a lack of awareness of their management needs. Despite their obvious interest, the vast majority of sites contain no on site interpretation or descriptions other than what survives of the monument so most people would be unaware that they are passing through an Iron Age or Bronze Age settlement or defensive fort. Only with the stone circles, tin mines or eighteenth century forts that have a significant physical presence are the monuments more obvious.

In some cases inappropriate, albeit unintentional, harmful attention by visitors can be a threat to sites such as at Stowe's Pound on Bodmin Moor where the building of "fairy castles" by visitors risks harming the original heritage value of this site. On others such as the rock labyrinth art at Rocky Valley, Tintagel, the tracing by visitors on to paper of the labyrinth features on the cliff face is causing the gradual erosion of these features themselves. In these and other cases heritage is best safeguarded for future generations by leaving only footprints on the path and taking only photographs and memories home.

This project seeks to safeguard and improve scheduled monuments across the Cornwall Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB) working to enable local people and our visitors to better enjoy these places. We are looking at 40 sites across: -

Rame Head

Bodmin Moor

Lizard

The North and South Coasts, including the Round in Tehidy Country Park and Crane Castle in Illogan.

We are seeking to improve these monument sites across the AONB, through site enhancements, including some repairs, access improvements and the clearance of damaging scrub and to enable people to better enjoy the sites.

We are keen for local residents and our visitors to increasingly experience the sites in person and this could include volunteering your time (individually or as a group) by joining cont'd...us to clear scrub from some sites or just getting out and about on foot and enjoying the sites as all of them are on or adjacent to public rights of way with plenty of walking routes available on www.iwalkcornwall.co.uk. We will be organizing guided walks also during the lifetime of the project.

The project is also supported by community based archaeology groups including the Meneage Archaeology Group, the Cornwall Archaeological Society, TimeSeekers and the Rame Conservation Trust and artist Kurt Jackson. The Cornwall Archaeology Unit has helped us to train these groups to work with us to survey sites at risk.

ILLOGAN VILLAGE HALL NEWS

By Stephen Turner

Winter is when we enjoy extra special events such as the Illogan Players Pantomime in the cosy environment that is the Village Hall but for one person it is also a time to tackle all those little jobs that we've been meaning to do. You may have noticed that Tom, our superb maintenance manager, has tackled those pesky potholes in the car park, kept the toilets flushing, touched up bits of our interior paintwork and ensured our lights continue to shine bright. He's also reluctantly boarded up the community shelter due to vandalism but has a cunning plan to bring it back to community use. Tom is one of those unsung heroes that you never consciously notice what they've done but who's efforts the hall and our community couldn't do without. Thank you Tom!

Photos are of three of the principal cast members of the Illogan Player's panto Treasure Island and three of the chorus members. The cast are drawn from the local community of Illogan Parish (or very close by) include children right through to pensioners and this year numbered 35 members of cast and crew.

For further information about the Village Hall and regular activities, please see page 8.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The Royal British Legion Illogan Branch would like to thank everyone who gave donations and supported the 2019 Poppy Appeal in so many ways.

As a result over £17,000 was collected locally for the appeal. Thank you so much to "one and all".

Another Successful Year for Illogan Scouts

What an amazing year we've had Scouting in Illogan. There are many great achievements we can reflect on in 2019 but with all sections at near capacity perhaps our greatest achievement is that the Group continues to grow from strength to strength. We now look forward to a fun packed 2020 with all the usual camping and outdoor activity opportunities (and more) that you would expect from a forward thinking scout group.

I think my personal highlight, apart from seeing my Daughter invested as a Scout Leader by the District Commissioner at the Christmas Carol Service, was spending an evening with Mr Leonard 'Skip' Cole, a King's Scout from Falmouth. He achieved the highest award in scouting when King George VI was still on the throne! Obviously of senior years now, he captivated the audience of young people from across the Group with his witty stories and memories of his scouting days. He also gave out badges to everyone there from his collection!

We have been helped throughout the year by various organisations and would like to publically thank all those that have supported us in 2019, including: Morrisons, Tesco, Regal Cinema, Bookers, JDS, Cornish Oven, Rhodda's Dairy, Royal British Legion (Illogan Branch) and Nine Ashes Scout Activity Centre, Bodmin.

The Beaver Colony, Cub Pack and Scout Troop all meet on Thursday nights during school term time at Illogan Village Hall. Beavers is for boys and girls aged 6 to 8 years old and meet from 4-30pm until 5-45pm. Cubs is for boys and girls aged from 8 to 10 ½ and meet from 6pm until 7-30pm and Scouts is for boys and girls from 10 ½ until reaching their 14th birthday and meet from 7pm until 9pm. After this age Explorer Scouts is provided at a District level until they are 18 years old with the local groups meeting in Redruth or Camborne.

There are limited spaces available in the younger 2 sections and at only £27 per term, Scouting in Illogan still represents great value for money. Please call Neil Payne on 07899 800 480 or email neil.payne13@gmail.com for your child to come along for three free taster sessions without obligation.

LITTER PICKING

Following the successful Litter Picking events last year Councillors are going to undertake a further pick on:

Saturday 4th April from 10.30am – 11.30am.

We would like to encourage as many people as possible to join us and to make this a Community event. A variety of areas will be covered and if anyone would like to join please contact the Councillor you would like to assist (contact information can be found on the back page of this review) or alternatively call Illogan Parish Office on 01209 711433 for further information. All equipment will be provided but you might like to bring your own gloves.

We look forward to seeing you.

GIRLGUIDING IN ILLOGAN

Rainbows (girls aged 5 to 7) have been busy this term working towards their badges and having fun making friends and learning new skills. They have done a village litter pick and learnt about thoughtful shopping and the food bank as well as joining the other units for parades and cinema trips.

Brownies (7 to 9) started their term with baking delicious shortbread biscuits and then went on to make bracelets from recycled coke bottles and plastic bags in line with Girlguiding's Future Girl challenge which was all about recycling and reusing. The older girls had the chance to go to Nine Ashes near Bodmin for an adventure day of all sorts of outdoor activities – the weather was best described as 'challenging' and all the girls came home covered in mud but having had a great time.

We celebrated fireworks night with real sparklers and with edible ones made from chocolate fingers and sprinkles – both were greatly enjoyed! We went to Remembrance Parade and the girls did us proud – looked immaculate and behaved so sensibly and responsibly.

A lighter hearted parade was Redruth's lantern parade which we went to as reindeer, having had great fun the week before with glitter and pipe cleaners making our antlers.

We ended the term with our Christmas party before the girls had a chance to attend a Guiding only showing of Frozen 2, complete with a badge for attending!

Guides (10 to 14) started the term with a weekend camp, designed to introduce the younger girls to camping for the first time – unfortunately the weather had other ideas and it poured and blew a gale all weekend – we managed to not blow away and the girls had a great time and kept each other cheerful despite getting very wet.

Indoors during the term we tried some healthy eating recipes and baked some Halloween treats. We had a visit from a photographer to give us some tips and ideas for our photography badge and learnt some very interesting stretches from a yoga teacher as part of our theme for the term about looking after our bodies and minds. On a lighter note we had a pamper evening and enjoyed make up and massages after playing some very boisterous games. We took part in both the Remembrance and lantern parades and finished our term with a fun filled party.

Volunteers wanted! — please see page 15

ILLOGAN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

ILLOGAN SCHOOL PTA

A big thank you to all of you that came to our Christmas market, there were over 50 stalls for everyone to browse. We were apprehensive as it was the first Market the current committee had organised, but Illogan Village turned out in style.

Through events like this we are able to fund items outside the school budget; during the festive period the children were treated to a show by Squashbox theatre, called the Christmassy Christmas show. This was followed by the children's bazaar on 19th December, with a special visit from Santa.

Last year saw the first Illogan Parish Fair combined with the School's Summer Celebration. We weren't sure how this would work, but it was a great success. We have decided to make this a permanent arrangement and have decided, jointly, on a new name which is Illogan Village Fair. This year it will be held on 4th July.

Our next event will be Easter bingo. This will be held on Wednesday 25th March and Easter eggs will be the prizes.

School for Social Entrepreneurs - Growing Business Ideas

A Springboard programme of support is being offered to individuals, community groups and businesses which are less than 12 months old in the Illogan area. Support sessions will be held in the village in spring/summer.

SSE Cornwall is delivering the support in Falmouth, Penryn, Truro, Redruth, Camborne, Pool and St Day as well as in Illogan. It is all fully funded and so completely free for people to access. The aim is to offer this free support to individuals and unincorporated community groups who may have an idea for a community business/social enterprise they wish to explore and develop that idea further; through to new social enterprises/business (less than 12 months old) who wish to access tailored business support to enable them to develop and grow their existing business further. The programme has secured funding and we're currently promoting it to all communities and beginning to sign up clients ready for a start date for delivery in March this year.

The programme delivery will run through to 30th June 2022 and will mostly be delivered through a mix of tailored workshops where you can meet like-minded people at similar stages of developing/delivering their business idea plus up to 4 hours of mentoring to help you take your ideas forward.

HELP!

Girlguiding In Illogan is flourishing, with full units of Rainbows, Brownies and Guides – around 70 girls aged from 5 to 14

But a combination of retirements and young women heading off to university means that we are facing a shortage of volunteer leaders to support girls in their units. Meetings are once a week for between one and two hours and there is full training provided.

Leaders have great fun, learn new skills and make life long friends – please consider coming along to join the fun and help this thriving community of girls and young women to go from strength to strength.

For more info and to chat about the options please ring 01209 482177 or email:
